Mirrors and Windows

Literature for Building Inclusive Classrooms

April 18 from 5pm - 7pm

Marysville Transportation Center

4302 134th St NE

Marysville, WA 98271

Featuring Dr. Anthony Craig
Director, UW Leadership for Learning (EdD)

Children's literature can allow students to see themselves on the pages and provide insights into the worlds of classmates. Share in conversations with fellow educators from around Snohomish County as award winning children's literature publications are shared that support all learners in our classrooms.

Hear from Dr. Anthony Craig about the importance of surrounding our students with the mirrors and windows that build our classroom communities. Dr. Craig has served as a teacher, instructional coach, principal, director of diversity, equity and outreach, and currently is the director of the University Of Washington College Of Education's Leadership for Learning (EdD) program. He continuously works to prepare leaders to create conditions to achieve equitable outcomes for all students.

Agenda:

- 5:00 – 5:35 Welcome and book talks about the latest award-winning children's literature
- 5:35 – 6:05 Light dinner with discussion and networking
- 6:05 – 6:50 Dr. Craig - SURROUNDING OUR STUDENTS WITH MIRRORS AND WINDOWS
